Each year, Washington, DC celebrates the Fourth of July with a bang. There are plenty of DC-flavored ways to celebrate Independence Day, both virtually and safely in-person. Below, you’ll find four days’ worth of activities to celebrate the holiday with the nation’s capital. Make sure to check out what’s open in DC, as well as the city’s current status.
CELEBRATE DIVERSE BACKGROUNDS AND GROUPS THAT HAVE Fought FOR INDEPENDENCE

- Watch an overview of how women, Native Americans and Blacks influenced the American Revolution
- Daughters of the American Revolution Museum
  - Watch the founding of the Daughters of the American Revolution - exclusively organized and managed by women - occur in Washington, DC
  - Take a virtual tour of the iconic National Headquarters or join a live conversation at the museum
  - Create your own quilt or family box to save memories for future generations
- Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture
  - Review a summary of Black soldiers in the Revolutionary War and get to know seven important Black heroes
  - Read, listen and discuss Frederick Douglass’ “What to the Slave is the Fourth of July?”
- Smithsonian National Museum of the American Indian
  - Review the actions of Oneida Indian Nation during the Revolutionary War
  - Learn about the struggles faced by Native Nations due to their forced removal

JOURNEY BACK IN TIME TO GEORGE WASHINGTON’S MOUNT VERNON

- Visit the home of America’s first president to discover why he joined the Revolution
- Put yourself in the shoes of the Founding Fathers with an interactive look at the Constitutional Convention
- Discover the role of African Americans under Washington’s leadership during the Revolutionary War
DAY 2

SALUTE THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER AT THE SMITHSONIAN NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN HISTORY

- Learn the history of the flag that inspired our national anthem
- Share your thoughts about what the American flag means to you. Your photos and stories will make up a mosaic image of the flag for all to see.
- Learn the story of the women who designed and crafted the iconic flag

STEP INTO THE SOCIETY OF THE CINCINNATI AND ANDERSON HOUSE

- Join the ranks of the society founded in 1783 by officers of the Continental Army to perpetuate the memory of the War for Independence
- Take a virtual tour of the historic site that houses the society
- View the current exhibit, “America’s First Veterans,” and honor those who first fought for American freedom

STROLL TO VIEW THE JEFFERSON MEMORIAL

- Read up on the history of the Declaration of Independence’s principal author
- Jefferson was a student of architecture. Take in the thoughts behind his memorial design with the help of renowned landscape architect Frederick Law Olmstead Jr.
- View the memorial grandeur in 360 degrees

IMMERSE YOURSELF IN HAMILTON’S
TREASURY DEPARTMENT

- Take a mobile tour of the U.S. Treasury Department
- Grasp a true understanding of U.S. currency with the Currency Academy
- Listen in on all things bills with the Green Money Podcast
DAY 3

HONOR REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS AT ARLINGTON NATIONAL CEMETERY

- Pay respects to the 11 veterans of the Revolutionary War interred at the cemetery
- Make a stop to remember Pierre Charles L'Enfant, the Frenchman who designed Washington, DC - appointed by George Washington - and who served in the French Colonial Troops and Continental Army Corps of Engineers
  - Get an in-depth view of the history behind the creation of Washington, DC

CHEER ON THE WASHINGTON NATIONALS

- Relive the Game 7 win in the 2019 World Series that delivered the Nats their first world championship
- Become your family’s DC baseball historian
- Read up on DC’s renowned Homestead Grays, who dominated the Negro Leagues
- Cheer for your favorite commander-in-chief during the beloved President’s Race

CELEBRATE CULTURAL DIVERSITY WITH THE SMITHSONIAN FOLKLIFE FESTIVAL

- Experience virtual celebrations of global diversity
- Explore the language of our lands’ Indigenous peoples with selections from the Mother Tongue Film Festival
- Fire up the grill and listen to a conversation of multicultural barbeque traditions

SNEAK A PEEK AT THE INTERNATIONAL SPY MUSEUM

- Learn of the spy skills needed during the Revolutionary War
- Get to know James Lafayette, an enslaved man in Virginia, who spied for the Patriots and helped turn the tide of the war
DAY 4

CELEBRATE JULY 4TH WITH THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

- View the nation’s Founding Documents and learn the history of Independence Day
- Join a virtual journey and discussion of the Declaration of Independence
- Participate in the annual reading of the Declaration of Independence from the steps of the Archives building

WAVE YOUR FLAG AT THE NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE DAY PARADE

- Grab your seat on Constitution Avenue and watch the 2019 National Independence Day Parade
- Transport back in time to 1776 with U.S. Army Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps
  - Watch history come to life with a tradition that began with the Continental Army
  - Learn the important role the musicians played in providing soldiers key information during battle

LISTEN IN ON THE PBS “A CAPITOL FOURTH” CONCERT

- Join the annual concert live the evening of July 4
- Get into the patriotic spirit early with a recording of the 2020 concert
- Tap your toe to John Phillip Sousa’s “Stars and Stripes Forever” while learning about “The March King” and his contributions to the nation’s President’s Own U.S. Marine Band
  - Visit the Congressional Cemetery in remembrance of Sousa’s musical contributions

BE AWED BY DC FIREWORKS

- Watch fireworks from iconic angles over Washington, DC
- Discover how firework displays became an Independence Day tradition
- Dive into the science behind the first firework and learn the real names of your favorite sparklers
- Enjoy coloring pages during your barbecue or picnic dinner